Note:

One of an edition of about 100 partly numbered prints.

Per the sheet number 96 inscribed on recto, the work could be identified as lot 57 of the anonymous sale held on 23 May 1941 at Hôtel Drouot in Paris. M. Jean Cailac of 13, Rue de Seine, who served as the prints expert for that sale, was the buyer of this work. His name is noted in Hildebrand Gurlitt's address book as one of his contacts in France.

The original report on the provenance of this work, as submitted to the Task Force Schwabing Art Trove, was made accessible online at www.taskforce-kunstfund.de as of 14 January 2016. That report was updated by the Gurlitt Provenance Research Project on 27 September 2018.

All rights to this report belong to the German Lost Art Foundation under whose administration the Gurlitt Provenance Research Project operates.

Disclaimer:

The Gurlitt Provenance Research Project, as the successor to the Task Force Schwabing Art Trove, focused exclusively on the provenance of the artwork described in this report. This report does not purport to make pronouncements on any legal claims and legal positions. Where individuals are referred to as descendants, this term is not legally binding. No liability will be accepted for conclusions drawn by third parties based on this report.

The Gurlitt Provenance Research Project endeavoured to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the information provided in this report. No liability will be accepted, in particular, for the accuracy of the used sources; the facts, analyses and conclusions contained therein; the exhaustiveness of research and evaluation of the available source material; any analyses or conclusions drawn from the sources in the course of research; the findings on the subject of the report and how they were derived; the authenticity of the artwork, its attribution to a particular artist, and/or its monetary value.

The conclusions drawn in this report may be revised, should additional relevant material be discovered. The Gurlitt Provenance Research Project welcomes any information that may augment or clarify the provenance of this work.
